Aunt we delighted: Connections of GBGB Greyhound of the Year Coolavanny Aunty celebrate at the annual Awards at the OEC Sheffield last Sunday. Trainer Angela Harrison’s superstar also picked up Stayer of the Year and Bitch of the Year after an incredible 12 months on the track. Chair of Premier Greyhound Racing Lord Lipsey (third left) was on hand to present the trophy to happy members of the Alnwick Greyhound Group.

As part of a series of welfare updates for licensed trainers, GBGB has circulated information on the importance of an effective, year-round programme of prevention and treatment of internal and external parasites.

Parasitic infections in greyhounds can seriously impact their health and welfare and may also pose a risk to humans who have contact with infected dogs. Trainers and kennel staff should be aware of the source of infection, prevention, symptoms and treatment of common internal parasites including roundworms, hookworms, lungworms and tapeworms and external parasites such as lice, mites, ticks and fleas.

The update has been circulated by email to trainers and racecourses and can also be found on the Trainers’ Portal of the GBGB website. It covers key topics including biosecurity and quarantine of new kennel arrivals and advice on purchasing safe and effective anti-parasitic treatments.

Further information and guidance regarding parasite control and treatment is available in Annex 5 of the GBGB Code of Practice for Trainers’ Residential Kennels. If you have any further questions or queries, please contact your veterinary surgeon.

Doping substances have no established therapeutic indication or are substances of abuse and may alter performance. Examples include anabolic steroids, erythropoietin, amphetamines, and cocaine, and other stimulants. They have no place in greyhound racing and GBGB controls doping substances by sampling and a policy of zero tolerance, i.e., if the substance is identified in a greyhound in any amount, the person responsible is brought before a disciplinary committee.

In contrast, there are a range of medications that can be used to treat greyhounds. Effective veterinary treatment is not only required for good animal welfare but also, greyhounds are working performance animals whose owners pay fees to keep them in training. However, such medications carry risks. These medications may directly or indirectly affect performance or lessen the requirement to rest and recuperate before continuing with training. This latter scenario poses primarily a welfare risk to the greyhound, and secondarily a reputational risk to greyhound racing.

Given the capability of modern analytical techniques to detect ever smaller amounts of substances, it is not possible to control these medications by a zero tolerance approach, i.e., there has to be sensitivity control on the analytical techniques used. Such sensitivity control must be scientifically determined to ensure that integrity and animal welfare needs are properly served. To achieve sensitivity control for medication, we have worked nationally and internationally, especially with Greyhounds Australasia, to produce scientifically based Screening Limits which then can be used by a Veterinary Surgeon to advise on a Withdrawal Time if they prescribe these medications. Full information is available in the Veterinary Portal, and the information is summarised below.

Please note, the listed ‘Detection Time’ is not the same as the Withdrawal Time advice which is the responsibility of the prescriber and should be longer than a Detection Time to take into account the impact of sources of animal variability and the medicinal product formulation administered.

1. The Detection Time is information from the regulator and is a product of the first observed time point at which urine and/or plasma samples collected from all dogs in the study are below a screening sensitivity limit. It is not a Withdrawal Time.

2. Withdrawal Time advice is the responsibility of the prescriber and should be longer than a Detection Time to take into account the impact of sources of animal variability and the medicinal product formulation administered.

3. The GBGB requires no treatments be given in the 7 clear days before a race, therefore in Britain a minimum Withdrawal Time of 168 hours applies.

4. The use of meloxicam for racing greyhound is not advised due to this extended Detection Time: 432 hours = 18 days.

5. 120 hours = 5 days, 144 hours = 6 days, 168 hours = 7 days, 192 hours = 8 days, 216 = 9 days, 240 hours = 10 days.
The Disciplinary Committee of the GBGB was in attendance at a meeting held on 9 February 2023. Those present: Mr H Starte (chair) Mr P O'Dowd Mr R O'Donovan

1 Harlow Stadium: Professional Trainer Mr D Brock

Professional Trainer Mr Danny Brock was found in breach of rules 174 (viii) and 152 (ii) of the GBGB Rules of Racing in that he had been made a disqualified person by another authority recognised by the GBGB, namely the British Horseracing Authority (BHA) and had acted in a manner prejudicial to the good reputation of greyhound racing as regulated by GBGB.

Mr Brock was in attendance by video link from Harlow Stadium, as were Mr Dave Barclay, the owner of Harlow Greyhound Stadium and Miss Katie Bennison, authorised representative of Harlow Greyhound Stadium.

The Committee heard that at a hearing held between 14 and 16 December 2022 the Disciplinary Panel of the BHA had found Mr Brock to be guilty of corrupt and fraudulent practice as a licensed jockey. On three occasions he had agreed not to ride a horse on its merits and had then not ridden the horse on its merits. He had done so as part of a conspiracy with others to bet on the outcome of the races in which he had deliberately not run the horses on their merits. On 19 January 2023 Mr Brock was disqualified from being a BHA-licensed jockey for 15 years.

The Committee heard that Mr Brock’s career as a greyhound trainer began in 2019 as an Owner Trainer. In 2020 he had obtained a Greyhound Trainer licence and from April 2022 he had held a Professional Trainer Licence. He was contracted to Harlow Stadium.

Mr Brock had been an apprentice jockey with various trainers from March 2009 until August 2016, after which he had held a full licence until it expired in 2021. Mr Brock told the Committee that the BHA had refused to renew his licence in 2021 because he had not disclosed his mobile phone records to the BHA investigation into the matters for which he was disqualified on 19 January 2023.

The Committee heard that Mr Brock had been found to have ridden three races in a corrupt betting conspiracy between him and five bookmakers: riding the horse Mochalov at Lingfield on 5 December 2018, riding Mochalov again at Lingfield on 2 March 2019 and riding the horse Samovar at Southwell on 7 March 2019. To assess Mr Brock’s conduct on those occasions, the BHA Panel also considered evidence of his performance as jockey in six other races: five other rides on Mochalov between December 2018 and March 2019 and a ride on the horse Resurrected (IRE) at Chelmsford in September 2019.

The BHA Panel found that in the race on 5 December 2018, after Mochalov made a slow start, Mr Brock had restrained the horse and taken it to the rear of the field until two furlongs from home. He had then not ridden the horse to any real finish but, significantly, had run past only two beaten horses and finished 4th. That was a placing crucial to the success of the lay bets (unusual for a 6-horse race) that had been made by one of the gambler conspirators on Mr Brock’s intentions for his rides on Mochalov.

Resurrected (IRE) had won the race in September 2019 under a forceful ride by Mr Brock. He had received a 7-day suspension in October 2019 for use of a modified whip in the race. Four of the gambler conspirators had made £100,000 profit from bets on that race in various markets. These were legitimate profits, but the race was significant because it showed the strong flow of information to the conspirators about the prospects of Mr Brock’s rides.

The BHA Panel found that in the race on 5 December 2018, after Mochalov made a slow start, Mr Brock had restrained the horse and taken it to the rear of the field until two furlongs from home. He had then not ridden the horse to any real finish but, significantly, had run past only two beaten horses and finished 4th. That was a placing crucial to the success of the lay bets (unusual for a 6-horse race) that had been made by the gambler conspirators.

The BHA Panel found that the race on 2 March 2019 was an even clearer instance of a deliberate failure to ride Mochalov on its merits. At the start Mr Brock had not dipped and driven the horse forward at the same time as the other jockeys. He kept the horse to the rear, making no effort to... go forward. In the home straight he did not use space available for a run down the inside and was not making efforts similar to other jockeys in the race. Mochalov finished 5th. One of the gambler conspirators placed a lay bet just after the off that was four times his average lay bet, risking £4,077 to win £226. Another placed the 7th largest lay bet of 1,900 lay bets on his account, risking £3,412 to win £503.

The race on 7 March 2019 was a two-horse race between Samovar and Tricky Dicky. The BHA Panel found Mr Brock had been instructed by Samovar’s trainer to pop the horse out and lead all the way if possible. Mr Brock did not have the horse ready to jump out at the off. He was late taking the horse’s hood off, as the stalls were opening. He then appeared to nudge the horse into an unbalanced leftward manoeuvre that it had started making. With Tricky Dicky already many lengths ahead, Mr Brock made no effort to correct this manoeuvre for several strides. By the time he got Samovar to begin to travel in the right direction, the other horse was a dozen or more lengths ahead and the race was lost. Mr Brock made no serious effort after that until giving Samovar a slight push about a furlong from home.

Mr Brock’s conspirators were effectively laying against Samovar when they backed Tricky Dicky. One made his largest ever deposit in his account, £6,000, on the morning of the race. He backed Tricky Dicky with £5,000 on the Sportsbook and placed bets on Belfair totalling £1,000. Another deposited his largest sum ever deposited on the day of a race, £7,200. His average back bet was £209. He staked £2,202 on the Sportsbook at 1.57 and risked a total of £4,998 at between 1.56 and 1.41 on the Exchange. Another conspirator made his largest ever stake on the day before a race with a bet of £1,500 at 2.0. On race day he bet another £748 at 1.67. Another of the conspirators betting on the Exchange made the third largest risk on his account and his biggest win risk, risking £2,200 at 1.56-1.52. The BHA Panel found the gamblers knew what to expect from Mr Brock from an early stage and that he had provided what they expected with a performance that deliberately damaged Samovar’s chances.

The BHA Panel found that Mr Brock had not been stopping horses for his own private purposes. It was not possible to identify what they were, but he must have received rewards for what he did. Three times in three months he had stopped horses intentionally for reward, in the knowledge that they had been layed to lose. It was persistent behaviour in breach of one of the fundamental tenets of the sport. It involved cheating the connections of the horses he rode and the people on the wrong side of the bets in those races and indirectly cheated everyone involved in horse racing, which depended on honest riding and honest betting to help finance the sport.

The Committee heard that Mr Brock did not attend the BHA Panel hearings in December 2022. Mr Brock told the Committee that he had not stopped the horses Mochalov and Samovar and had not been part of a betting conspiracy. He said he had cooperated fully with the BHA inquiry before the hearings. The BHA Panel said he had refused to produce his phone records for the inquiry but, he claimed, he had been unable to because the phone company would not provide him with them. He told the Committee he had not attended the BHA Panel hearings because he felt he had told them everything he needed to say. He could not afford legal representation and felt he would not have been able to do himself any good appearing without it. He now regretted not attending and realised that he should have attended.

The Committee found Mr Brock to be an obviously intelligent and articulate young man who was well able to explain his case that he had not stopped the horses Mochalov and Samovar in his three rides on them in December 2018 and March 2019 and would have been very capable of facing questioning on the evidence before the BHA Panel. The Committee received a number of letters of support for Mr Brock from greyhound owners, commending him for his ability as a trainer and particularly for his concern and care for the welfare of greyhounds entrusted to him. However, the Committee had no cause to doubt that the BHA Panel’s conclusions on the evidence before it had been correct. The Committee made clear that no case was made that Mr Brock had not shown proper concern for the welfare of greyhounds in his care. There was no evidence of his being involved in any corrupt dealings in his four years as a licensed greyhound trainer. Nevertheless, Mr Brock’s disqualification by the BHA had shown him to be seriously dishonest and lacking in integrity and a threat to the integrity of greyhound racing. His disqualification and the reasons for it was clearly conduct highly prejudicial to the reputation of greyhound racing as regulated by the GBGB.

The GBGB had to act to protect the integrity of greyhound racing, to protect the public participating in the sport, including the betting public, and to maintain public confidence in the greyhound industry. Mr Brock could not continue as a licensed trainer. It may be that at some time he would be able to apply and persuade a future disciplinary committee that he had demonstrated that he was a reformed character who no longer represented a threat to the integrity and reputation of greyhound racing and merited a licence. However the necessary sanction now was that Mr Brock be disqualified indeﬁnitely and with immediate effect.
